- Identify a range of ethically acceptable options

Domain 3: Process

- Prepare for effective ethics consultation
- Facilitate effective and inclusive communication, ethical deliberation, and problem-solving among all parties
- Formalize ethics recommendations
- Complete the ethics consultation

Domain 4: Evaluation and Quality Improvement

- Assess one's own performance and effectiveness in ethics consultation at regular intervals
- Ensure systematic and comprehensive recording of ethics consultation data
- Monitor for and address relevant trends in ethics consultation within the organization (e.g., frequently repeated consultations about the same issue or from the same unit or department)
- Recommend policy and practice changes within the organization as needed.

Definition of Qualifying Continuing Professional Education

Qualified continuing professional education credit hours offered by any professional entity may be used toward HEC-C renewal. The earned credit hours must address content related to the domains and tasks outlined in the HEC-C Content Outline. These credit hours must be from an accredited sponsor (e.g., ACCME, ANCC, NASW, ACPE). Attendance at meetings that offer qualified credit hours, but not earning those credit hours, is not sufficient.

In the event of an audit, you will be required to provide evidence of the information provided in the tracking forms submitted with your application. This documentation includes the following:

1. Number of continuing education hours earned related to HEC-C examination content outline.
2. A certificate of completion that indicates number of hours earned and includes a statement that the provider offers credit from an accredited sponsor (e.g., ACCME, ANCC, NASW, ACPE).
